

THE ACMLT AWARD OF DISTINCTION

PURPOSE OF AWARD:	To distinguish a member who has consistently maintained high professional standards as a medical laboratory technologist.
METHOD OF APPLICATION FOR AWARD:	By nomination.
NATURE OF AWARD:	Plaque, expenses to attend the Annual General Meeting to receive the Award, and expenses for related events.
FREQUENCY OF AWARD:	Awarded annually provided there is suitable nominee.
YEAR ESTABLISHED:	1985, by the Alberta College of Medical Laboratory Technologists.

DESCRIPTION OF THE ACMLT AWARD OF DISTINCTION

The Award of Distinction is awarded to a member who has consistently maintained high professional standards as a medical laboratory technologist. The individual has kept abreast of current developments in her (his) field and has a reputation for high quality workmanship and sincere co-operation with the rest of the health care team. Her (His) conduct and personal appearance are exemplary to newcomers to the field, and inspire confidence and trust in patients and medical staff alike. Above all, the service which this person renders to patients and to our profession is strong testimony to our vision statement: "Ensuring Excellence in Medical Laboratory Science."

Nominations may be submitted by members at large, no later than June 1. Each nomination must be accompanied by citations outlining the nominee's outstanding professional leadership. The Award of Distinction nominees are reviewed by College Council, and the successful recipient endorsed through Council Motion.
